Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I, as illustrated in figures 1-6;

Species II, as illustrated in figures 7-11; and Species III, as illustrated in figures 12-16.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there is no generic claim.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Important Notice to Applicants

2. It is note to Applicants that independent claim 18 can't be read in Species I because the display device (i.e., the monitor unit 110) does not comprise the claimed second PCB since the control board 150 is disposed in the main body 100, but not in the display device (110) (see Fig. 3). Further, since independent claim 18 can't be read in Species I, all claims depending upon claim 18 must not recite feature, which is only disclosed in Species I, e.g., claim 24 recites a feature, "the second connecting member is a flexible printed circuit (FPC)", which is only read in Species I.
3. It is note to Applicants that the specification and drawings do not disclose a display device comprising more than one first PCB (source PCB) of claim 32. The specification and drawings only teaches the display device comprising more than one first connecting member (i.e., data transmission films 363/535/831, see Figs. 2, 8 and 13).
4. It is in the best interest of the patent community that applicant, in his/her normal review and/or rewriting of the claims, to take into consideration these editorial situations and make changes as necessary.
5. It is noted to Applicants that in the parent application 09/621,825, Applicants elect species II without traverse for examination. Therefore, in this application, Applicants should elect a different species for examination.
